Investigation of Silk from Edsen-Gol and Lop-Nor: Reports from the Scientific Expedition to the Nort (Reports from the Scientific Expedition to the North-Western)

Vivi Sylwan : Investigation of Silk from Edsen-Gol and Lop-Nor: Reports from the Scientific Expedition to the Nort (Reports from the Scientific Expedition to the North-Western) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Investigation of Silk from Edsen-Gol and Lop-Nor: Reports from the Scientific Expedition to the Nort (Reports from the Scientific Expedition to the North-Western):

A detailed study of the ancient silk remains excavated prior to WWII, by Sven Hedin in Lop-Nor, Chinese Turkistan (now Xinjiang) and by Gsta Montell in Edsen-Gol, Gansu Province, China. The material was comprised mostly of whole sections and fragmentary remains of garments recovered from ancient grave sites and presumed to date from
