

#488528 in Books 1996-10-22 1996-10-22Original language:EnglishPDF # 1 9.75 x 9.50 x .50l, #File

Name: 051770832996 pages | File size: 48.Mb

Dianne Russell Condon
*ePub | DOC | audiobook | ebooks | Download PDF

(Mobile ebook) Jackie's Treasures: The Fabled Objects from the Auction of the Century

Jackie's Treasures: The Fabled Objects from the Auction of the Century

Dianne Russell Condon : Jackie's Treasures: The Fabled Objects from the Auction of the Century before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Jackie's Treasures: The Fabled Objects from the Auction of the Century:

7 of 7 people found the following review helpful. Wife liked itBy WayneBobGift for wife. She said she enjoyed it and would give it 5 stars. She would recommend it to anyone who enjoys reading about Camelot and the Kennedys.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Wanted more!By AC GilbertToo few pics, but nice commentary on pieces shown. The best part is the complete list of items and projected/actual winning bids. I was hoping more for a catalog of all the items.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. unless you want to know how much a few things ...By debbieunless you want to know how much a few things sold for don't bother. contains few of the items sold.

A First Lady. An American icon. A legend. Jacqueline Bouvier Kennedy Onassis was all of that, and yet she was an extremely private person. For the first time since the fabled auction, the items that only a privileged few were able to view are captured in all their beauty in Jackie's Treasures: The Fabled Objects from the Auction of the Century by Dianne Russell Condon, with a foreword by Dominick Dunne.Jackie's Treasures, includes fifty of the most talked about and intriguing items from the auction that made headlines around the world. Each item is accompanied by vintage photographs and a brief history detailing its provenance. Condon presents an array of pieces that extend throughout Jackie's life--John F. Kennedy's rocking chair, John Jr.'s high chair, the now famous humidor given to John F. Kennedy by Milton Berle, Jackie's pearls, and the Lesotho III, her engagement ring from Aristotle Onassis. Condon also includes a full index of all of the lots sold at the auction from least to most expensive. Her detailed descriptions of the items and the auction's atmosphere when they were presented offer a glimpse not only into Jackie's enchanting life but into a part of history that will always be in our hearts. Jackie's Treasures is an exquisite souvenir of not just a woman whose grace and style were imitated and admired the world over, but an era that will never be forgotten not unlike Camelot.

From the Inside Flap
A First Lady. An American icon. A legend. Jacqueline Bouvier Kennedy Onassis was all of that, and yet she was an extremely private person. For the first time since the fabled auction, the items that only a privileged few were able to view are captured in all their beauty in Jackie's Treasures: The Fabled Objects from the Auction of the Century by Dianne Russell Condon, with a foreword by Dominick Dunne. Jackie's Treasures, includes fifty of the most talked about and intriguing items from the auction that made headlines around the world. Each item is accompanied by vintage photographs and a brief history detailing its provenance. Condon presents an array of pieces that extend throughout Jackie's life--John F. Kennedy's rocking chair, John Jr.'s high chair, the now famous humidor given to John F. Kennedy by Milton Berle, Jackie's pearls, and the Lesotho III, her engagement ring from Aristotle Onassis. Condon also includes a full index of all of the lots sold at the auction from least to most expensive. Her detailed descriptions of the items and the auction's atmosphere when they were presented offer a glimpse not only into Jackie's enchanting life but into a part of history that will always be in our hearts. Jackie's Treasures is an exquisite souvenir of not just a woman whose grace and style were imitated and admired the world over, but an era that will never be forgotten not unlike Camelot. About the Author Dianne Russell Condon's fascination with the Kennedys was ignited by old Life magazines, books, and Ron Gallela photographs. She worked on Ted Kennedy's presidential campaign in 1980 before continuing her career in the book business, where she has worked for the past nine years. She was born in Queens, New York, where she currently resides with her husband and young son.