Jewelry from Sarah Coventry and Emmons

Kay Oshel : Jewelry from Sarah Coventry and Emmons before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Jewelry from Sarah Coventry and Emmons:

This beautiful book showcases the popular and fashionable jewelry produced by Sarah Coventry(R) and Emmons(R), both of which began in 1949 under the auspices of the C.H. Stuart company in Newark, New York. Eye-catching, versatile, and affordable, fashion jewelry from these two companies was produced through the early 1980s and is highly collectible today. Here, a dazzling array of gorgeous color photographs illustrates sets, brooches, earrings, necklaces, rings, and bracelets from Sarah Coventry (USA), Sarah Coventry International, and Emmons. Captions include item descriptions, production dates, original pricing, and current values. Most pieces are identified by original company name to help both buyers and sellers become more knowledgeable. This "user friendly" book also includes company overview, stories from former employees, information on marks, collector hints, catalog images, glossary, and index. If you're not already collecting this fabulous jewelry, you'll be inspired to get started!

About the Author A former educator and counselor, Kay Oshel and her husband now own a mobile pizza trailer which they set up at various flea markets.
