I could make my own bookBy JBThe pictures are pretty to look at.....but my preschool aged kids could help me make a book just like this. It's just photos of color matching kitchen utensils. Makes a good coffee table book I guess.

If you buy, sell, or decorate with vintage kitchen equipment, this book will become indispensable. Thousands of vintage kitchen collectibles are presented in over 120 color photographs filled with related groupings. Red, black, green, pink, yellow, turquoise, and blue kitchenware is explored in settings that include vintage fabrics, glassware, Bakelite, wooden-handled tools, tinware, and so much more! You will recognize many of the brand names, such as Fire-King, PYREX*, and Lustro-Ware. The groupings illustrate the compatibility of mixing materials, objects, and styles to create harmonious arrangements for display. Also included are tips for finding and caring for your vintage kitchen treasures. Invaluable as a reference, this book will delight the senses with page after page of colorful vintage kitchen collectibles to inspire your own creativity. Manufacturing details, size, specifications, and values for each piece are all included in the captions.
