This book is fantastic and one of my favorites! The photos are clear, crisp, bright and beautiful. The prices are comparable even after many years. It is so difficult to find many figurals in other jewelry books. I find myself going back to this book again and again. It is one of my favorites, because so much jewelry is of animals, people, florals, whimsicals. I have the hardback copy, I was afraid I would wear it out too fast. This book has over 290 pages of photographs, that is a lot of jewelry!!! You will not be disappointed in this investment, it truly holds its value. It is a great reference guide and a lovely book of costume jewelry. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five Stars By Albert Triolo I was very happy with this book.

Marcia 'Sparkles' Brown, renowned jewelry expert and author of Unsigned Beauties of Costume Jewelry, Signed Beauties of Costume Jewelry Volumes I and II, and Coro Jewelry, has produced an all-new volume, this time dedicated to rhinestone jewelry. The author has drawn from over 500 designers and unsigned pieces in her private collection to take readers on a sightseeing journey - you can view figurals; animals from the real to the unreal; and whimsicals that reveal the artistry of twentieth century jewelry designers. Chapters include 'People From Around the World' from faraway places like Africa and Australia; 'Dancers' from ballet to folk; 'Down on the Farm'; 'A Trip to the Zoo'; 'Transportation' from horse drawn carriages to airplanes; 'Under the Sea'; and 'Mystical Beasts' including dragons from China, India, and America. This book will take you around the world in your armchair, send you back in time to your childhood, and bring a smile to your face.

Well, my friend Marcia "Sparkles" Brown has done it again--a book with over 2,000 items of jewelry from her own collection, with descriptions and suggested retail value for each item shown. She shares her vast knowledge of this subject with the first chapter, giving the general rules about collecting. Her book covers great rhinestone jewelry items of people, dogs, cats, fish, tigers, frogs, giraffes, owls, snakes, elephants, bears and much more. -Robby Miller, Antique Journal, June 2006
