MehBy RosieI really wanted to like this book, but many of the projects were uninspired and reaching, as if the author was trying to find enough projects to fill up a book. The notebook on the cover was by far the nicest project in the book. I kept trying to like this book, and now I am just sorry I did not return it.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Fiber-fantastic! Great resource for stitching projects from small to large!By Stefanie G.This book is packed full of unique projects that are unexpected and "sew" doable for every level of crafter. It will make you look at the objects around you in new ways and consider embellishing them with all sorts of stitches and patterns. You can create all sorts of images with small to large fiber and simply poking holes, hammering nails or simple screws or using already existing grids. The wrapping projects are some of my favorites as the objects are so vibrant and festive with the colored fibers. The jewelry projects are so dainty but are not so intricate as to be too challenging. This will definitely be a go-to resource for embellishing and upcycling objects throughout the house.

Transform your home and make unique gifts using string! Follow Lucy Hoppings simple instructions to create a whole host of stylish home accessories to update your dcor. In the first chapter "Display and decorate," you'll be able to make a cool geometric lampshade, get organized with embroidered storage baskets, or revamp a bare wall with a large piece of wall art that consists of lots of little canvases which combine to make an impressive deer. Wrap your furniture in string too there are projects to transform your chairs, decorate a table, and stitch rainbow curtains. All the creations in the second chapter "Accessories and Jewelry" can be worn, so you can be a walking work of art! There are embroidered buttons to embellish a cardigan, a vibrant neon necklace that makes a statement, and even a cute pineapple purse that will liven up any outfit. In the final chapter, "Artful gifts," you can use all your new skills to make your friends and family beautiful gifts such as pretty stitched notebooks for the student in your life, a trendy arrow cushion for a new home, ceramic hanging decorations for Christmas, and why not whip up gift boxes and gift tags as the perfect finishing touches? Start with the simplest projects and progress to more complex designs such as the intricate string art owl, guided every step of the way by clear step-by-step illustrations and a comprehensive techniques section.
