

#8128894 in Books Boydell Press 2011-03-17Original language:EnglishPDF # 1 9.50 x .70 x 6.70l, 1.41

#File Name: 1843834669264 pages | File size: 33.Mb

From Brand: Boydell Press

**Download PDF / ePub / DOC / audiobook / ebooks*

(Free) Studies in Early Medieval Coinage 2: New Perspectives

Studies in Early Medieval Coinage 2: New Perspectives

From Brand: Boydell Press : Studies in Early Medieval Coinage 2: New Perspectives before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Studies in Early Medieval Coinage 2: New Perspectives:

The imagery and development of early Anglo-Saxon coinage have recently been the subject of renewed interest amongst scholars and collectors; the growth of material available for study, combined with new analytical approaches to research in this area, has enabled scholars to shed new light upon what has been, for many decades, overlooked.

Studies in Early Medieval Coinage 2, using but not limited to the proceedings of the second biennial Sceattas

Symposium (Leeds, 2008), builds upon the recent advances to establish a new benchmark for the study of coin typologies. Going beyond the traditional examinations of moneyers, mint marks and monarchs, these essays, by many of the leading scholars currently working in the field, draw upon the imagery present upon the coins themselves to offer new insights into Anglo-Saxon art and society. Contributors: Michael Metcalf, Tony Abramson, Catherine Karkov, Rory Naismith, Anna Gannon, Wybrand Op den Velde, Megan Gooch, Barry Ager, Gareth Williams, Mike Bonser, Stewart Lyon, Arent Pol, James Booth

Will prove useful to students of the art, coinage, politics and economy of the seventh to tenth centuries. It consequently represents a welcome addition to the literature on the period. EARLY MEDIEVAL EUROPE Will undoubtedly be of much interest to numismatists. MEDIEVAL ARCHAEOLOGY For those interested in early medieval coinage this publication certainly ranks as a 'must buy'. THE SEARCHER About the Author Institute of Medieval Studies, University of Leeds