Leora Auslander : Taste and Power: Furnishing Modern France (Studies on the History of Society and Culture) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Taste and Power: Furnishing Modern France (Studies on the History of Society and Culture):

Louis XIV, regency, rococo, neoclassical, empire, art nouveau, and historicist pastiche: furniture styles march across French history as regimes rise and fall. In this extraordinary social history, Leora Auslander explores the changing meaning of furniture from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth century, revealing how the aesthetics of everyday life were as integral to political events as to economic and social transformations. Enriched by Auslander's experience as a cabinetmaker, this work demonstrates how furniture served to represent and even generate its makers' and consumers' identities.
