I would love to see Ms. Gibbs do an update to this book. Even so, it is still helpful because of all the information it contains. How about it, Ms. Gibbs? The collectors of the world are looking to you! Four stars for the current version, waiting for an update to give it five stars.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. AWESOME BOOK FOR SHAPED PANS LOVERS AN INFO LIKE WOWBy TRACY REITERI am a baker an collector, this book is amazing, hoping for new second edition for pans after 2005! LOVE IT,,6 of 6 people found the following review helpful. Great photos and a neat book for cake pan collectors...By P's MommyThis is a great book with nice photos of most of the cake pans from the past. My only complaint is that the values of some of the rare pans aren't accurate. This is probably because the book was created in 2003 and things have changed since then. I would recommend this to anyone, just for the photos if nothing else. It lets you know what is out there. I hope this helps=)

Here is a fun, new collectible. Decorated cakes are associated with celebrations of all kinds--can you imagine a birthday party without a cake? Now many cake-lovers have discovered an engaging hobby: collect the pans that cakes are baked in! The most prolific pan manufacturer, Wilton Industries, Inc., has offered well over 600 designs since the 1950s. Delightful pans have also been offered by Nordic Ware, Inc., Amscan, Inc., Mirro, Inc., Wear-Ever, West Bend, and others. Over 700 of these wonderful, formed-aluminum novelty cake pans are documented in this colorful and unique book. Current estimated values are provided for all pans, while multiple indexes help the collector look up pans by stock number, name, key word, mold type, or age. Whether you are wondering if there has ever been a licensed cake pan of Porky Pig, curious about how long your favorite piano cake kit was sold, or want to check out the plethora of bunny rabbit pans, the beautiful pictures and detailed data in this book will serve you well.

About the Author Jeanne Gibbs is a devoted grandma and baker of treats for a large extended family. Somewhere between making her first heart-shaped brownie and her fifth doggie-shaped cake she became an avid collector of novelty pans. In her spare time she is a consulting business systems analyst. She lives in Woodbury, Minnesota.
